

LearningFast - ICT Skills Benchmark™

Competency 1: Information Technology Concepts

The first basic requirement of competence in computing is to understand the context for the computer-based applications in society and the essential concepts of computers.

Learning Activities (16)

Basic Terminology

Basic Computer Components

The Keyboard

The Mouse

Computer Ports

Computer Software

Operating Systems

Types of Operating Systems

Using a Graphical User Interface

Application Software

Application Software

Using Application Software

Networks

Computer Networks

The Internet

What is The Internet?

Using a Browser

E-mail

What is E-mail?

Using E-mail

Day-to-Day Use of Computers

Occupational Health

Security

Copyright and the Law